Why?

The Toronto Lawyers Feed the Hungry Program is 100% funded by donor contributions and is supported by a team of committed volunteers. Established in 1998, this year marks the 20th Anniversary of the Toronto Program. The Program, which operates year round, provides hot, healthy meals to members of our community in need four times per week. Meals are served in the cafeteria of the Law Society of Ontario located in downtown Toronto. Last year approximately 60,000 meals were served.
